THE SEASON OF CHANGE...

Let me be right upfront about this: I hate Winter. It's cold, it's bleak, it's inconvenient on so many damn levels, and then there's the constant threat of "frozen pipes" and water going everywhere, ruining everything! FACT: I have had over six water-related incidents in my life here in Maryland; two busted water heaters (mine and an upstairs neighbor), three bathroom floodings (all from upstairs), and the absolute worst ever: a total building flooding from the third floor down! A feed line to an upstairs neighbor's toilet gave out after 9am one day, and ran ALL DAY LONG until some kid came home from school after 3pm to find the ground floor very, very flooded, and their ceilings and air vents raining water. Just like mine on the SECOND floor.

In retrospect, that day was awful to be sure, but it could have been a LOT worse. I only lost the equivalent of a couple of long boxes of comics and some vintage boxed toys, which came out of their wet boxes and were no longer MIB. /Sigh.

Yes, they were all mostly "human error" and mechanical failures, but that threat is always there. I just wish the seasons wouldn't change, and we could have an "Endless Summer", to put it into the vernacular of the Beach Boys. Let's face it: I hate "change"! It's so... different.

Over the years here at PREVIEWS, we've seen a lot of change. Not only with the staff and management, but with the publication itself. Color covers, squarebound spines, better paper, full-color graphics, higher page-counts, a more diverse and unique product selection... well, there's been plenty of changes since we started this thing all the way back in 1988! And there's more to come.

Next month, in PREVIEWS #355, we're instituting some of the biggest updates and major changes to our catalog in many years. I can't go into the details here, but rest assured that you're certain to flip for them! Keep your eye on PREVIEWS world.com for some big announcements in the very near future!

Let me change(!) the subject, and point us back to this month, and PREVIEWS #354! It's March, so that means it's time to celebrate the work and accomplishments of those talented Women in Comics! And as in previous years, we've loaded our Comics & Graphic Novels section with the best in new and backlist titles, and have even pulled out a selection of recommended titles for your notice, starting on page 256. And over on the FlipSide, we're featuring a great assortment of creators who talk about their roles in the creation of comics, from the Publisher to the Comic Shop, and everyone in between! We couldn't fit all of them into our interview section for this issue, so we'll have plenty (and I mean PLENTY) of additional interviews for you to checkout this month on PREVIEWSworld.com!

FINAL FANTASY CREATURES BRING ARTS -BAHAMUT-

SRP: $149.99
Release: JULY 2018
STL080356

With design direction by legendary sculptor Takayuki Takeya, the FINAL FANTASY summon Bahamut takes shape as a CREATURES BRING ARTS action figure! With its impressive size and a wide range of articulation, this figure is sure to be a striking addition to any FINAL FANTASY collector's shelf.

Where The Magic Of Collectibles Comes Alive!

CGC 5.0 Detective Comics #27 in Hake's March Auction

In March, Hake's Americana & Collectibles will give Batman collectors the chance to bring home a copy of Detective Comics #27 CGC 5.0 with the first appearance of Batman, the revelation of his identity as Bruce Wayne, and the first appearance of Commissioner Gordon. Hake's President Alex Winter described it as, "the premiere item in the first auction of our 51st year."

Batman isn't the only character who'll draw significant bidding in the auction. The sale will feature Golden to Modern Age comics with keys like Action Comics #7 CGC 4.0 and Captain America Comics #3 CGC 7.0. The auction is currently open for bids and will close on March 13-15, 2018 at hakes.com.

Golden Age Comics Yield Strong Results at ComicLink

ComicLink opened 2018 with a strong selection of Golden to Modern Age comics and original art within their Focused Auction. Specifically, in the Golden Age Session, ComicLink achieved impressive prices for some lower grades, demonstrating that books at all grades can produce big dollars.

Golden Age highlights included Action Comics #121 CGC 8.5 for $3,100, Captain America Comics #24 CGC 5.5 for $2,400, Detective Comics #35 CGC 0.5 for $12,259, #69 CGC 3.0 for $13,250, and #75 CGC 9.0 for $3,433, Phantom Lady #17 CGC 2.5 for $4,300, Sensation Comics #6 CGC 2.5 $4,646, Superman #20 CG 9.0 for $3,371, and Wonder Comics #1 CGC 1.0 $3,950.

Blink and You'll Miss Her

Clarice Ferguson, a/k/a Blink, made her comics debut in Uncanny X-Men #317 (1994). Created by writer Scott Lobdell and artist Joe Madureira, the first incarnation of Blink is unstable, tense and panicky. She can teleport herself and others, can use her powers destructively, and open portals that displace projectiles or enemies.

When Blink is introduced, she and other young mutants have been captured by the Phalanx, a group of techno-organic beings who were attempting to assimilate the mutants' powers. Unfortunately, Blink couldn't control her powers, and was caught in her own teleportation field while trying to escape. As a result, this version of the character was presumed dead.

KAT LEYH

EDGE ESSENTIALS

Pick-up these books to learn more about their Indie Edge style.

- Lumberjanes Vol. 7: A Bird's-Eye View TP (AUG171358)
- Lumberjanes Vol. 8: Stone Cold TP (OCT171293)

Kat Leyh is a Chicago-based writer and artist. She's best known as co-writer and cover artist for the series Lumberjanes, and for her queer superhero webcomic, Supercakes.

Please tell us a bit about yourself!

I have been writing and drawing comics now for about four years, and I still feel incredibly lucky that this is my job! When I'm not doing that, I love riding my bike, cooking, playing the fiddle, and traveling. I will likely make comics about doing all of those things at some point!

What are your favorite projects you've contributed to over the past decade?

I've been fortunate to work on a lot of projects for different series that I'm already a fan of, like Steven Universe and Bravest Warriors. Also, being part of the Lumberjanes team has let me work with a lot of incredible artists, which is still something that delights me!

What are you currently working on?

Other than Lumberjanes, I'm working on a graphic novel right now for First Second called Roadkill Witch, it should be out in 2019.

What fun titles are you reading?

Most of my favorite comics have very kinetic, flowing art styles like Last Man, This One Summer (MAR141197), One Punch Man (Vol. 1 / JUN158141), and One Piece (3-in-1 Vol. 1 / OCT091135). I love shorts and mini-series as well. Emily Carroll is one of my absolute favorite storytellers and I love her collection of short horror comics, Through the Woods (JAN178756). I read fewer non-fiction comics, but Lucy Knisley's autobiographical comics are my favorite in that category, her travel comic Age of License (JUN141213), specifically.

USER'S GUIDE

There's a lot of awesome comics and products to look through in PREVIEWS. "A lot" might be a bit of an understatement, as each month's catalog is filled with hundreds and hundreds of pages of upcoming comics and related merchandise! It can be easy to accidentally overlook a new series you've been dying to read or a figure you've been pining to add to your shelf when there's so many things to browse. That's why we've put together this guide to help you learn how to use PREVIEWS like a pro to order the awesome titles and products you want!

Learn How to Use PREVIEWS to Order From Your Comic Shop!

WHAT EXACTLY IS PREVIEWS?

PREVIEWS is part catalog, part magazine (we call it a Mag-a-log!) of monthly listings of all of the upcoming comic titles and related products from your favorite publishers and manufacturers in one convenient place. And don't worry—PREVIEWS is organized by publisher and product type (and color-coded to boot!), to make it easy to find and flip to the section or items you're looking for. Each item listing has the information you need, such as format, size, page count, price, release date, stock or item code, and descriptive text, and nearly every listing is accompanied by artwork or images.

The most important aspect of PREVIEWS to remember is that items solicited in the catalog are anticipated to ship 2-3 months later (or more). For example, if you found a comic you wanted in the May issue of PREVIEWS, you can expect to see it turn up in your local comic shop in July. The catalog can be a great resource for figuring out where your favorite comic series is going, or for discovering new ones that you'll want to add to your library—not to mention all the other awesome products!

HOW DO I ORDER FROM PREVIEWS?

When you've picked out all of the items you want, you can fill out the Short Order Form included in your copy of PREVIEWS and submit it to your local comic shop. You can also ask your friendly neighborhood retailer about obtaining a Customer Order Form, a booklet that contains a complete listing of all the items made available for that month. These forms make pre-ordering your comics and products a breeze and can help your local comic shop decide what to stock in the store for other customers, too! Be sure to also ask your retailer about their pullbox or subscription service. Once you've submitted your order, you can sit back and relax, or try to contain your excitement until your comics and merchandise arrive!

PICARD FACES HIS GREATEST ENEMY — HIMSELF — IN IDW'S NEW STAR TREK EVENT

The Mirror Universe. A dark and twisted counterpart to our own universe, a place where humanity has given into its basest impulses, where the United Federation of Planets is replaced by a decadent and militaristic Terran Empire. In the mid-24th-century, the Terran Empire is on the verge of collapse, and Captain Jean-Luc Picard commands the Empire's flagship, the ISS Enterprise.

This May, the evil Enterprise of the Mirror Universe invades our reality in IDW Publishing's weekly Star Trek event: Star Trek: The Next Generation: Through the Mirror by Scott and David Tipton, with art from Chris Johnson, Marcus To, Josh Todd, Paris Niete, Debra Parita, and J.K. Woodward. Following the events of last year's Star Trek: The Next Generation: Broken Mirror, the mirror Picard will take his Enterprise on a desperate mission into the familiar Star Trek universe, and he will pit his ship and his crew against the finest Starfleet has to offer, Captain Jean-Luc Picard and the USS Enterprise with the fate of the galaxy at stake!

It's the battle of good versus evil Star Trek: The Next Generation fans have waited thirty years for this May in the five-part Star Trek: The Next Generation: Through the Mirror!

BRIAN K. VAUGHAN'S POWERFUL BARRIER COMES TO PRINT FROM IMAGE COMICS

200 ■ IMAGE COMICS $4.99

In Barrier, the webcomic serialized on PanelSyndicate, Brian K. Vaughan and Marcos Martin explored an issue ripped from the headlines — immigration and the rising xenophobic response. Like their previous collaboration The Private Eye, which looked at a world where social networking ultimately rendered privacy itself obsolete, Barrier puts a sci-fi spin on the issue, taking immigration to a logical endpoint and asking, "What if?" This May, Image Comics brings the series to print in a unique, five-part comic that will never be collected. Previewed on Free Comic Book Day, each issue of Barrier will be printed in a landscape format to preserve the original webcomic formatting, and the issues will have heavy cardstock covers. The result is a powerful work of art that explores whether the hopes and dreams people have in common are more important than the linguistic and cultural barriers that divide them.

SCOTT KOBLISH IMAGINES HIS OWN DEATH IN 4-PANEL COMICS

Perhaps no one has imagined his own demise quite as intensely as Marvel Comics artist Scott Koblish. In Chronicle Books' The Many Deaths of Scott Koblish, the artist opens his notebooks to reveal a series of 4-panel comics that depict the many morbid — and morbidly funny — ways a single person can meet his end. Life is full of mishaps, and in Scott Koblish's hands, those mishaps become a work of art!

DIRECT TIE-IN TO THE CRITICALLY -ACCLAIMED DARK SOULS VIDEOGAME!

FEATURED ITEM

In anticipation for the release of our latest Dark Souls tie-in comic, Age of Fire #1, we speak to writer Ryan O'Sullivan about his love of the game, his experience with gaming comics, and the creativity and collaboration behind this new series!

Dark Souls ™ & © BANDAI NAMCO Entertainment Inc. /©FromSoftware, Inc.
All rights reserved.

RYAN O'SULLIVAN - WRITER

This is the first Dark Souls comic to directly tie into a specific game. Were you a fan of the game series before taking on the comics?
It's very exciting to be given the keys to the kingdom. Previous Dark Souls comics haven't had the chance to play with the toys. I'm glad we're getting them this time. When it comes to working on licensed comics, I think it's important to be a fan of whatever it is you're working on. It allows for greater nuance - you know what makes the IP tick, so you can really get into the nitty gritty of it. Also, you're a fan, so you know the sort of comic you'd want to read.

I'm a big gamer, and I've always really enjoyed the unique storytelling of the Souls games. I love how minimalist they are. So much of the story is told via item descriptions and location/ creature aesthetic, rather than via traditional storytelling means. This makes Dark Souls feel like an old school arcade/platform game, despite having this huge rich world full of lore. It's a piece of art.

In the comics we meet and interact with iconic characters from the games, how did you go about approaching these fan-favorite characters?
Carefully. This comic takes place during The Age of Fire. We see Gwyn and Artorias. We encounter Lordran and Anor Londo during their golden days. So much of the Dark Souls mythos is built around this period. My way around this was to take a leaf out of Kurt Busiek and Alex Ross's MARVELS. Rather than focus on what Gwyn or Artorias do on their day off, we focused on a cast of new characters that could cross paths with the legends, and the epic events, whilst telling their own stories we haven't heard before, during the Age of Fire. The Silver Knights are a particular focus. Because I love them.

You have created brand new characters within the series. Was it difficult to introduce these characters into such a long-standing and loved mythos? How was the process different from creating characters for projects you've originated yourself?
The biggest difference is audience. With Dark Souls, the comic is written for a specific audience in mind. If you're a fan of Dark Souls, you have a specific taste. So the characters in the story, including new ones I've come up with, are going to be to that taste. "More of the same, but cool" is the mantra for licensed comics.
When it comes to my own projects, such as Void Trip or Turncoat, as the story isn't written for a specific audience, the characters can be whatever I want them to be. Which is freeing and terrifying in equal measure.

As you have been involved with writing gaming based comics before, with Evil Within and Warhammer 40,000, how do you go about researching for your plots and scripts beyond the games themselves?
I read up on the online culture around the games. If you can find out the meme culture around a videogame you can really understand it. Youtube too. Obviously you don't let the memes bleed into the comic, that would be absurd, but it does give you insight into what makes fans tick, what fans find appealing about the games, etc.

Dark Souls has some storytelling similarities to The Evil Within. They're both very Japanese in their storytelling. Both properties adore vagueness. Part of the appeal of these games is that they don't give the players all the answers, so you get these huge online communities of players creating all sorts of conspiracy theories. It makes for fascinating reading.

You are joined on this project by Anton Kokarev, what makes him the best artist and collaborator for this story, and what is your process when working with artists?
It's a long process. Arton is great. His art looks like it's straight out of the games. I'm sure fans of this series are really going to dig it. As for my own process, I fully script, pass it over to the publisher, tweak it further if need be, and then tweak it one more time if the final art needs it. I usually keep in touch with artists as they're drawing the work, mainly to help clarify anything that isn't clear in the scripts, but also sometimes to truly collaborate and come up with different approaches.

Keeping Up With JONES

This spring, Rebellion brings Alan Moore and Ian Gibson's The Ballad of Halo Jones back to print in three remastered volumes, newly colored by Owen Michael Johnson. To promote this return, *PREVIEWS*world.com editor Vince Brusio spoke with Johnson about what it was like to work on this seminal work of comics science-fiction:

VINCE BRUSIO: How were you approached to work on this project? Tell us how you were brought into the Rebellion fold.

OWEN MICHAEL JOHNSON: I met Rebellion guys first time in 2017, in Angouleme! I showed my portfolio to Ben Smith (publishing director) and Keith Richardson (editor) and soon after they commissioned me the cover for the anthology Summer Magic: The Complete Journal of Luke Kirby, as they were still needing a cover color artist.

A couple of weeks after my first work, Ben wrote me asking if I was interested on doing some test pages on Halo Jones and... I think I got a heart attack!!! I mean, that Alan Moore? That Ian Gibson? And then... me! Obviously I accepted, we did some tests to choose the style and palette and then... here we are!

Were you familiar with Halo Jones before you were signed as part of the team to reprint the book?

No. I knew as everybody Alan Moore, and was a fan of some of his old graphic novels (Watchmen, Top Ten, V for Vendetta, The League etc.) but I never read this story before. I got a black and white version to read it. While I was reading, colors and atmospheres were coming through my mind, so I immediately fell in love with it!

What were some of the objectives you set for yourself in being the new colourist for this book?

First of all, to be respectful of the gorgeous black and white work that Ian Gibson did. You know, even if I'm a colourist, I'm a big fan of black and white. The first challenge to me was to add colors without "killing" all the line-art and hatching. Secondary, my purpose was to give different atmospheres along the three books, so as the different palettes could identify a specific period of Halo's life (the Hoop, the Clara Pandy, and the War). To obtain this, I chose 3 different "ground colors" that are greenish for the first book, pale yellow-lighter for the second, and obviously reddish for the third.

How do you see the color schemes you choose as affecting the tone, pace, or weight of this story?

I thought about every single color that I used, to create the right mood or to enhance the storytelling. The first book (e.g. the life on the leisure estate The Hoop) is highlighted by a greenish, sick, palette, so that you can feel the chaos and also the useless routine that everybody can feel living like that. In book 2 and 3, the action scenes are underlined by vibrant, warmer colours. That helps the reader get involved in the events. I also use a lot of weird, unusual colours to highlight the situations, e.g. blue faces to accentuate sadness, purple for fear, and so on.

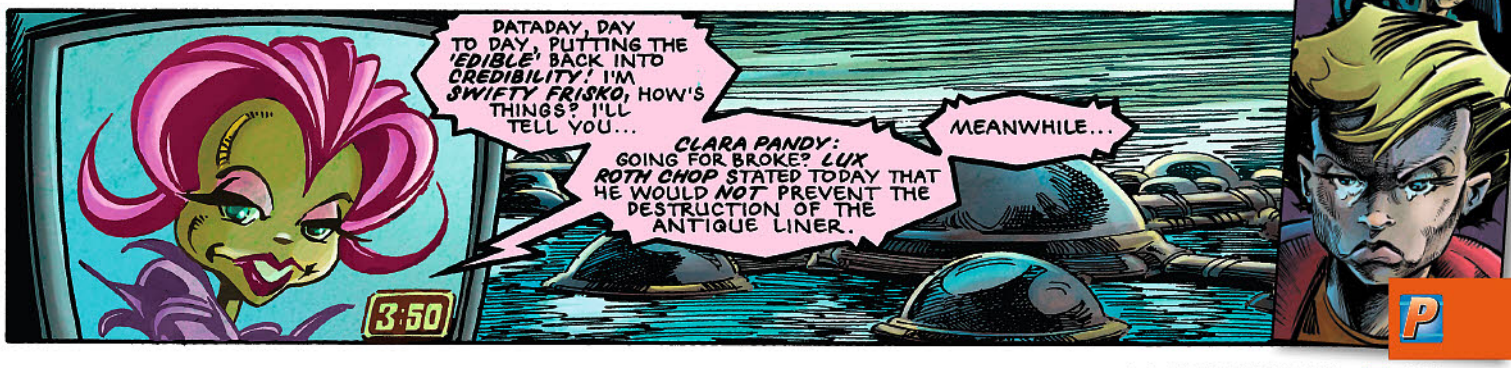

In what way did colouring this edition of Halo Jones challenge you as an artist?

In many different ways. Emotionally, because of the names involved. Being part of it has been beautiful and scary at the same time because I always felt the responsibility of this re-styling!

Technically, as I was asked to do adjustments to create continuity solutions where there was just black and white. Deciding which panel looks better without profiles, which could work better leaving a white background to play up that particular feeling. Even working on contiguous panels, where the floor of a panel becomes the ceiling of the next one, all of these circumstances required more than simply coloring.

Personally, as I tried to give attention to the smallest details. I'm a huge fan of backgrounds and landscapes, so I tried to put a little of life into small little things or people that we see just for a panel. I think that details give the reader that feeling of "plausibility," and this definitely improves the reading.

Look for the first volume of The Ballad of Halo Jones, written by Alan Moore, illustrated by Ian Gibson, and newly colored by Owen Michael Johnson, on page 418 of this month's PREVIEWS, then look for volumes 2 and 3 in the months to come!

This in-world novel follows the adventures of Donnen Brennokovic, a weathered and weary city guradsman who finds himself paired a fresh-faced recruit. When the mismatched pair discover a dead magistrate bleeding out on the flagstones, they're caught up in a clash between a shadowy organization known only as the Executors and a secretive group of Chantry agents—all over some ancient artifact.

Prolific dwarven author and heroic companion of the Dragon Age games, Varric Tethras brings us the collected edition of his breakthrough crime-noir drama, Hard in Hightown (with help from his trusted human confidante, Mary Kirby)! This volume is beautifully illustrated by Stefano Martino, Álvaro Sarraseca, Andres Ponce, and German Ponce with a painted cover by E.M. Gist!

In AD 323, a fleet of Roman ships is lost in a storm, and they find themselves on the shores of the New World—one thousand years before Columbus. Unable to return home, they establish a new colony, Roma Occidens, radically altering the timeline of America and subsequent world events as seen through the eyes of one family.

An exploration in alternative history from Brian Wood, Justin Giampaoli, and Andrea Mutti.

"It's an old story, but given Brian Wood's ability to transform history as demonstrated in works such as* Rebels and Northlanders, Rome West *is bound to bring something entirely new to the trope, and the additions of Giampaoli, Mutti, and Popov to his team seem to guarantee this."

STRONG FEMALE PROTAGONIST, BOOK TWO

writer Brennan Lee Mulligan

artist/cover Molly Ostertag

Alison Green used to be a superhero. With unlimited strength and invulnerability, she fought crime with a group of other teens under the alter ego Mega Girl. All that changed after an encounter with Menace, her mind-reading archenemy, who showed her evidence of a sinister conspiracy that made battling giant robots suddenly seem unimportant.

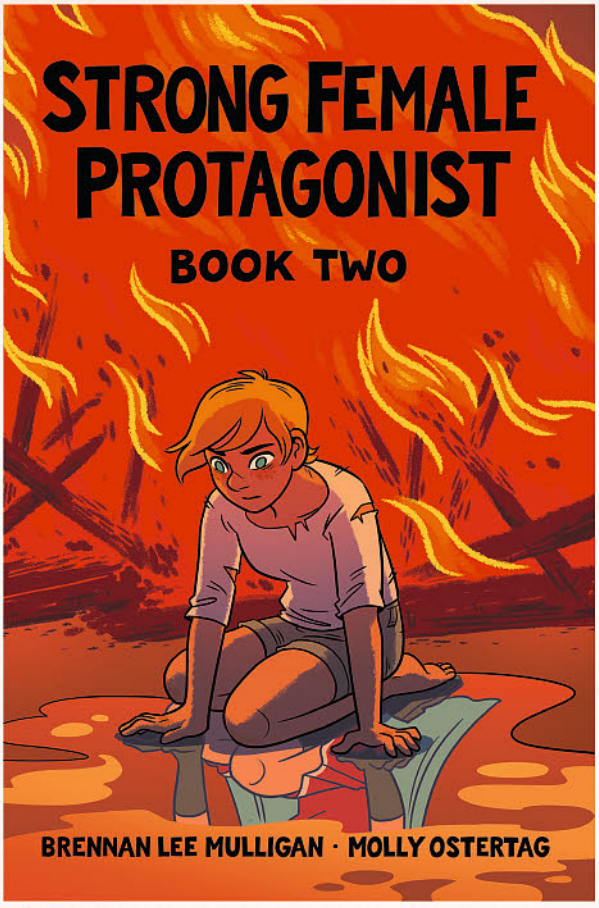

Now, Alison is going to college in New York City, trying to find ways to actually help the world while making friends and getting to class on time. It's impossible to escape the past, however, and trouble comes in the form of mysterious murders, ex-teammates with grudges, robots with a strange sense of humor, an inconvenient crush, a cantankerous professor, and many different kinds of people who think they know the best way to be a hero.

LOST GIRLS (EXPANDED EDITION)

writer Alan Moore

artist Melinda Gebbie

The groundbreaking and controversial masterpiece of erotic comics, decades in the making, is now available in a sumptuous hardcover collecting all three volumes plus 32 pages of new artwork and commentary... For more than a century, Alice, Wendy, and Dorothy have been our guides through the Wonderland, Neverland, and Land of Oz of our childhoods. Now, like us, these three lost girls have grown up and are ready to guide us again, this time through the realms of our sexual awakening and fulfillment. Through their familiar fairytales, they share with us their most intimate revelations of desire in its many forms—revelations that shine out radiantly through the dark clouds of war gathering around a luxury Austrian hotel. Drawing on the rich heritage of erotica, Lost Girls is the rediscovery of the power of ecstatic writing and art in a sublime union that only the medium of comics can achieve. Exquisite, thoughtful, and human, Lost Girls is a work of breathtaking scope that challenges the very notion of art fettered by convention. This is erotic fiction at its finest.

writer/artist/cover Nate Powell

As the sun sets on the 1970s, the spirit of the Love Generation still lingers among the aging hippies of one "intentional community" high in the Ozarks. But what's missing? Under impossibly close scrutiny, two families wrestle with long-repressed secrets… while deep within those Arkansas hills, something monstrous stirs, ready to feast on village whispers.

National Book Award-winner Nate Powell returns with a haunting tale of intimacy, guilt, and collective amnesia.

THE SILENCE OF MALKA

writer Jorge Zentner

artist/cover Ruben Pellejero

For the family of the little red-headed Malka, trading the Russian shtetl for the Argentine pampas isn't so easy. Even in a country eager to populate its vast territories, the immigrants discover that their new home isn't the promised land. They encounter hostility from both man and nature as they struggle through droughts and locusts in an attempt to cultivate the arid soil. When misery pushes them to the extreme, Malka's uncle is visited by the prophet Elias, who advises that he create a Golem—the mythical creature fashioned from earth and endowed with life by engraving on his body the word "emet" ("truth")—to pose as a man and aid the immigrants.

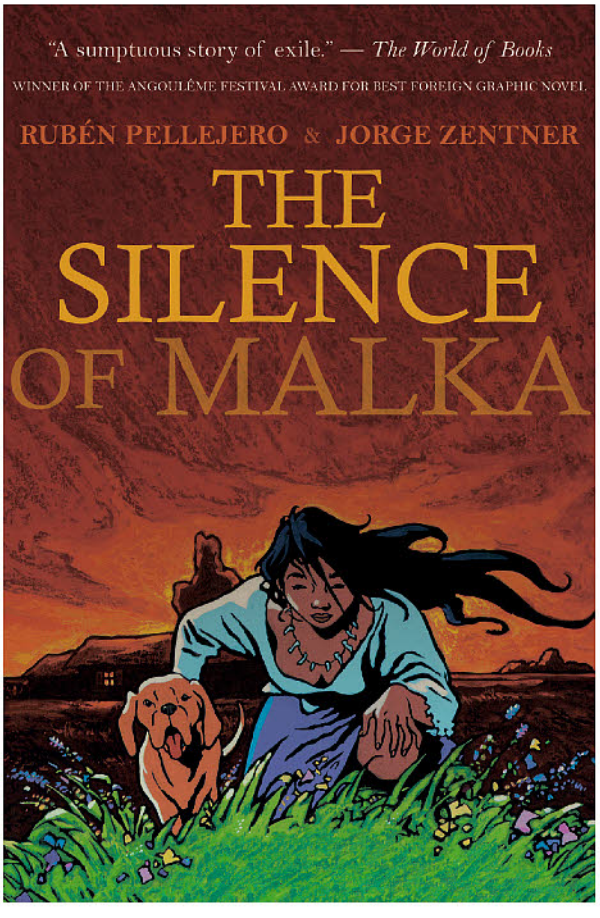

Years later, when the adult Malka is visited by Elias, the events of her youth force her to decide whether or not she can maintain her silence—with fate and divine justice hanging in the balance.

"On October 1, 2017, Las Vegas, Nevada suffered the worst mass shooting in modern American history, resulting in 58 deaths and over 500 injured. It broke my heart. Las Vegas is my home. I felt like something needed to be done to help in a unique way."
—JH WILLIAMS III, Artist & Curating Editor

This "unique way" was the genesis of the WHERE WE LIVE anthology—a riveting collection of both fictional stories and actual eye-witness accounts told by an all-star lineup of the top talent working in comics today. All the creators have graciously volunteered their time and talent to help bring some sense to this senseless act and, in the process, raise money for the survivors and their families.

The book will include a variety of perspectives with key themes exploring gun violence, common sense gun control, value of a compassionate society, mental health stigmatization, aftermath of tragedy and how individuals and communities persevere, and an appreciation of Las Vegas as a vibrant community.

WHERE WE LIVE also features stories from local writers and artists as they relate their personal experiences and reactions to this tragedy.

One hundred percent of the proceeds for the WHERE WE LIVE anthology will be donated to an existing GoFundMe campaign for the survivors in Las Vegas.

A MESSAGE FROM J.H. WILLIAMS III

The weekend of the October 1st shooting, we were out of town for a wedding. We got back to our hotel, ready for a good night's sleep before our long drive back to Las Vegas the next day. While lounging on the bed, I began my usual Twitter feed check. The first thing that comes up, posted only two minutes prior, is about a mass shooting in Vegas. "Is this a joke?" I blurt. We turn on the TV to a news channel—and then panic. It's true, our town is being hit by a mass shooting.

We watch the scrolling ticker at the bottom of the screen already estimating possible numbers of injured or dead while they repeatedly play video and audio of the crowd being shot at. There is an awful RATTATTATATAT of what sounds like an automatic weapon spraying into thousands of concert goers disturbingly emanating from the TV speakers, carrying shockwaves of numbing horror with it. Wendy and I start trying to reach beloved friends in Las Vegas. One friend who is a nurse at Sunrise Hospital is already on her way to help save lives after being called in. Her sister works on the strip at a restaurant. We hear from her that they've all been put under lockdown with warnings that a shooter is in their building, that there possibly could be bombs. We manage to get her on the phone. She is of course terrified, and crying, but also has to try to keep customers trapped inside as calm as possible. The sound of her voice coming from my wife's phone, on speaker, still haunts me.

Fortunately, our friend was indeed okay, but so many others that night don't have that story. So many were never coming home again. In the news, you always hear the statistics about how many died. Some do report on the greater number affected, but it's that last part that I fear can easily become less and less visible. Yes, of course, the deaths are important, but there are over 500 victims in this incident who will have varying degrees of need. They will have long-term needs, some of it will be medical care, and some of it will be dealing with the emotional distress.

We have to ask ourselves as a society how many Sandy Hooks or Sutherland Springs or Vegas incidents have to occur before we say enough is enough. There has been over 300 mass shootings in 2017. So many that the news cycles don't keep up.

The WHERE WE LIVE project will raise funds for those in need after such a horrible tragedy, but we want to do it in a meaningful way, that goes beyond money. Through stories and art, we want to ask the questions and address the problems we face as a country. To get the conversation moving in a direction of dealing with how out of control things have become. We can't just let this slip into the ether anymore. By creating a hopefully engaging, thoughtful book that talks about the various nuanced problems that got us here, we hope to contribute to that conversation. It's an intimidating thing, but we've got to try.

WHERE WE LIVE isn't just about Las Vegas. It's about where we live in our hearts and minds, in our nation, in our humanity. WHERE WE LIVE is about where we ALL live and what we're willing to allow in our lives.

It's 2024, and we still don't have flying cars, but good news: we're introducing Jack's sniper-toting, fascist-punching girlfriend, and a mysterious new nemesis from the NSA wants to hack back into the world's secrets by leaning hard on human punching-bag Jack McGinnis and his fellow paper jockeys. Order heavy on Image's new hit series if you like fun comics with shootouts, intrigue, a few jokes, and a nice, old-timey cliffhanger.

GORAN SUDZUKA
A WALK THROUGH HELL #1

AFTERSHOCK SPOTLIGHT

"Time for a horror story, I think. Time for another long, hard stare into deepest darkness. With the world in the shape it is these days, what else makes sense?"

GARTH ENNIS

So these two FBI agents walk into a warehouse...

Special Agents Shaw and McGregor handle the routine cases nowadays, which is just the way Shaw likes it. She's pushing forty, a borderline burnout, the ghastly memories of her last investigation still clinging like shadows. McGregor is younger, more dedicated, hanging onto whatever measure of idealism the world might throw at him.

When two fellow agents go missing inside a Long Beach warehouse, Shaw and McGregor are sent to investigate. But what they find waiting is far from routine, as the local police have already discovered to their cost. Before the night is out, our heroes will encounter terror beyond their most appalling nightmares—in a place where the night may never end at all.

A new kind of horror story for modern America, written by Garth Ennis (JIMMY'S BASTARDS, DREAMING EAGLES, Preacher, The Boys, Crossed) and drawn by Goran Sudzuka (Y: The Last Man, Hellblazer).

START OF A NEW STORYARC!

The second volume of this hit AfterShock series starts here!

The year is 1353. The fugitive Roderick Helms has retreated to a life of hidden seclusion after failing to expose the Church's role in the Black Death. But something threatens to bring him back into action. Something that has risen which will threaten to transform the waning plague into a far more darker and sinister crisis. And that something is none other than Satan himself!

Written by the master of violence, gore and mayhem, Frank Tieri (Harley Quinn, Marvel vs Capcom, Wolverine, Deadpool), with spectacular art from illustrator Oleg Okunev and covers by Eisner Award-nominated artist Tim Bradstreet (The Punisher, Hellblazer)!

"PESTILENCE is a refreshing new take on the zombie genre. It really drives home the claustrophobic onslaught of the undead."

MALIKA - WARRIOR QUEEN PART TWO

Recommended by Megan Cosman

The YouNeek Youniverse is expanding with the release of Malika -Warrior Queen Part 2 this May! Set in fifteenth-century West Africa, Malika - Warrior Queen follows the exploits of queen and military commander Malika, who struggles to keep the peace in her ever-expanding empire.

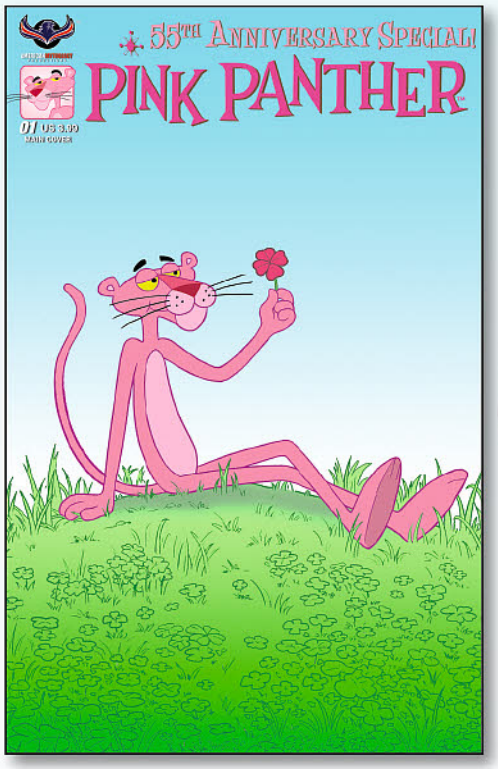

In the second volume of the graphic novel series, Malika uncovers that not all of her supposed allies feel she is capable to control the Azzazian Empire, leading to a painful betrayal by one of the people closest to her. The treachery unnerves a usually stoic and composed Malika, allowing her enemies both known and unknown, internal as well as external, to encircle her, positioning themselves for the destruction of Azzaz, the empire she spent her entire adult life building. Can Malika recompose herself and save her people once again? Or is this betrayal the beginning of the end for Malika and the people of Azzaz? Only time will tell.

Nigerian native and author Roye Okpue brings his love, respect, and rich knowledge of African history and legends in this intrepid follow up to 2017's Malika Warrior Queen (MAY172065). Featuring stunning artwork designed once again by Chima Kalu and Raphael Kazeem, Malika Warrior Queen Part Two is a 144-page symphony for the eyes. This next chapter in the YouNeek Youniverse if the perfect book to pick up for returning fans and new readers alike.

All hail the Warrior Queen!

(W/A/CA) Cece Bell
A 2015 Newbery Honor Book! Going to school and making new friends can be tough. But going to school and making new friends while wearing a bulky hearing aid strapped to your chest? That requires superpowers! Cece Bell chronicles her hearing loss at a young age and her subsequent experiences with the Phonic Ear, a very powerful — and very awkward — hearing aid. She wants to fit in and find a true friend. After some trouble, she is finally able to harness the power of the Phonic Ear and become "El Deafo, Listener for All." And more importantly, declare a place for herself in the world and find the friend she's longed for. (STK648179)

JAMES JOYCE: PORTRAIT OF A DUBLINER: A GRAPHIC BIOGRAPHY

Certified Cool

(W/A) Alfonso Zapico

A dazzling, prize-winning graphic biography of one of the world's most revered writers. Winner of Spain's National Comic Prize and published to acclaim in Ireland, here is an extraordinary graphic biography of James Joyce that offers a fresh take on his tumultuous life. Joyce experienced poverty, rejection, censorship, charges of blasphemy and obscenity, war, and crippling ill-health. A rebel and nonconformist in Dublin and a harsh critic of Irish society, he left Ireland in self-imposed exile with Nora, moving to Paris, Pola, Trieste, Rome, London, and finally Zurich. He overcame monumental challenges in creating and publishing Dubliners, Portrait of an Artist as a Young Man, Ulysses, and Finnegans Wake. With evocative anecdotes and hundreds of ink-wash drawings, Alfonso Zapico invites the reader to share in Joyce's journey. (STL078945) (C: 0-1-0)

HARBINGER WARS 2 #1

Recommended by Jim Kuhoric

Ahh the crossover event. That illustrious staple of comics that presents a foe so large it takes all our favorite heroes to come together or duke it out in order to save the day. Originally the idea was that the mega crossover would do something so huge and momentous, they'd leave an indelible mark on the entire line for months or years to come. Too many publishers ignore that part of the event (the ramifications) these days and focus on hype, but not Valiant. When these guys say something will shake the foundations of their shared-U, they mean it. That's why I am excited to see the fallout of Harbinger Wars 2 #1 in this month's PREVIEWS. HWII ushers the return of X-O to Earth and pits Bloodshot and Ninjak against Peter Stanchek and his band of Renegades in what they are promising to be the "most shocking, most violent, and most consequential clash of powers ever witnessed in the history of the Valiant Universe." That sounds like an epic showdown of the biggest and baddest players in the VU. I'm looking forward to reading a good old-fashioned punch you in the face event that leaves real scars across the characters. I'll be pre-ordering the 40-page bundle edition on this bad boy. Well played, Valiant... Well played.

POSITIVELY IZZY GN
(W/A/CA) Terri Libenson
Award-winning comics creator and author of the bestselling Invisible Emmie Terri Libenson returns with a companion graphic novel that captures the drama, angst, and humor of middle-school life. Izzy is the dreamer. There's nothing Izzy loves more than acting in skits and making up funny stories. The downside? She can never quite focus enough to get her schoolwork done. Bri is the brain. But she wants people to see there's more to her than just a report card full of As. At the same time, she wishes her mom would accept her the way she is and stop bugging her to "break out of her shell" and join drama club. The girls' lives converge in unexpected ways on the day of a school talent show, which turns out to be even more dramatic than either Bri or Izzy could have imagined. Available in softcover and hardcover editions. (STL078994) (C: 0-1-0)

The secret formula is just part of what makes a Krabby Patty delicious. There is also The Method, SpongeBob's crucial food prep procedure, and Squidward must learn it! But can he bear to study at the (cute) feet of a spongy sensei who drives him bonkers? Find out in "Method Madness"! Then in "Can't Get Much Commoner," King Neptune decides, perhaps unwisely, to learn about the simple pleasures of mortals by spending a day with two mortal simpletons-SpongeBob and Patrick. STAFF PICK

RETRO FAN MAGAZINE #1

Recommended by Steven Leaf

Nostalgia. It can be ancient history to some, to others it's remembering the best years of your life. For me it's George Papp's Superboy, Dick Sprang's Batman, Aurora model kits, Rat Fink, Officer Don and the Popeye Club, Lloyd Thaxton, Tony the Tiger Taylor, AM radio, and Saturday matinee.

Twomorrow Publications new magazine, Retro Fan Magazine, is pop culture nostalgia at its finest. This new publication covers what you remember about the 60s, 70s, and the 80s and hopefully teaches you something new as well.

This first issue cover features TV's Incredible Hulk, Lou Ferrigno, as well as Martin "Pesky" Pasko on The Phantom and his Hollywood treatment, Andy Mangel's look back at Filmation's Star Trek animated series, a look back at the Andy Griffith Show and a visit to Mayberry, and meeting Betty Lynn, Mayberry's own Thelma Lou. Add The Oddball World of Scott Shaw, this time featuring the goofy comic book Zody the Mod Rob, a look back at Mego's rare Elastic Hulk toy and many more articles and columns.

Retro Fan Magazine is a welcome addition to the list of titles from Twomorrow Publications and reminds us that's there is more than comic books when thinking about the good old days.

DISMANTLERS #1

written by ARIA BACI illustrated by ASHLEY A WOODS

cover A ASHLEY A WOODS cover B FRANKELL BARAMDYKA

$3.99 | 36 pages | FC | Mature

In a galaxy where terraforming is the most common form of real estate development, a highly skilled team of "dismantlers" travels to failed sites and salvages what's left of them.

But that's not the hardest part of their job. Because relationships with each other can be even more complicated than transforming entire planets.

This is not a story of a prestigious Federation or of a powerful Empire, but of the menial laborers who make it all possible, the unglamorous characters who work behind the scenes of galactic expansion. This is a story of their pillow talk, their break room banter, and their totally unforeseen fist fights with the pirates who jack their job sites out from under them.

From artist Ashley A Woods (NIOBE: She Is Life) and next breakout writer Aria Baci comes an all new fleet of characters to fall in love with.

THE MANY DEATHS OF SCOTT KOBLISH HC
(W/A/CA) Scott Koblish
Marvel Comics artist Scott Koblish has been illustrating his own demise for many years in morbidly funny, 4-panel black-and-white comics. He's the one person struck by a comet, suddenly overrun by a pack of baboons, resting under the precarious rock tipped by a single bird, or the target of his daughter's (of course homicidal) teddy bear come to life. Though it's always Scott on the receiving end, the comics perfectly capture that irrational feeling we all have that everything can go very wrong in one irrevocable instant. Slapstick, surreal, and eerily plausible, with extended scenarios and pops of color throughout, this collection of cosmic reckonings shows that, if the end is nigh, at least you'll die laughing. (STL079266) (C: 0-1-0) NOTE: Not Available in South Africa
HC, 8x6, 96pgs, PC $14.95

VALERIAN: THE COMPLETE COLLECTION VOLUME 4 HC
(W) Pierre Christin
(A/CA) Jean-Claude Mezieres
Fourth volume of the collection: return to Earth, and some great upheavals in the characters' lives, are on the menu for the best titles of the series. This volume contains books 9 to 12, two unmissable two-parters that represent a turning point in the story of our agents, and which are widely considered by critics and readers alike to be the pinnacle of the series. Characterised by a return to 20th century Earth, these two stories are suffused with incredible melancholy and poetic charm, and force Valerian, the action man, to face his limitations. As the real date neared 1986, final year of our world according to the authors, Pierre Christin reconciled fiction and reality with consummate skill and daring, sweeping aside the status quo and sending his heroes down a completely new path. (STL079761) (C: 0-1-1)

The New York photographer Weegee was known for staging crime scenes before the police showed up, altering a body position if it resulted in a better picture. His street photographs made him world famous. This graphic biography succeeds beautifully in capturing the contrasts in Weegee's life in pictures. The style in which Mannaert has drawn Weegee's hectic life is a perfect fit. (W/A/CA) Stephan Franck
Created by The Iron Giant animator Stephan Franck and taking Bram Stoker's world of Dracula fifty years hence into the pulp era of the 1930s, Silver introduces James Finnigan, a witty but (figuratively) soulless con man, who sets out to separate the living-dead from their precious silver. Personality conflicts, emotional entanglements and character comedy abound, as Finnigan assembles the crew of talented but broken misfits needed to pull off the heist of the last ten centuries. Hanu Akaishi's father just died, leaving him and orphan at age 17. It seems his father was in a lot of debt and took out some shady loans, and just when the Yakuza-esque creditors come to collect, a mysterious lawyer named Yuugi Senoh appears and says he'll deal with the matter personally. As it turns out, Mr. Senoh was someone Haru befriended many years ago as his mother ailed in hospital, but Haru has forgot about him. When the bank takes back the mortgage on his house, Haru takes Mr. Senoh up on his offer to live at his apartment. LOVE THAT BUNCH HC
(W/A/CA) Aline Kominsky Crumb
Aline Kominsky-Crumb immediately made her mark in the Bay Area's underground comix scene with unabashedly raw, dirty, unfiltered comics chronicling the thoughts and desires of a woman coming of age in the 60's. Kominsky-Crumb traces her steps from a Beatles loving fangirl, East Village groupie, an adult grappling with her childhood, an 80s housewife and mother, to a new 30-page story Dream House that looks back on her childhood, 40 years later. Collecting comics from the 1970s through today, Love That Bunch is shockingly prescient while still being an authentic story of its era. (STL079459) (C: 0-1-1)

THE MUSHROOM FAN CLUB HC
(W/A/CA) Elise Gravel
Elise Gravel is back with a whimsical look at one of her family's most beloved pastimes: mushroom hunting! Combining her love of getting out into nature with her talent for anthropomorphizing everything, Gravel takes us on a magical tour of the forest floor and examines a handful of her favorite alien specimens up close. From the fun-to-stomp puffballs to the prince of the stinkers — the stinkhorn mushroom — and the musically inclined chanterelles, Gravel shares her knowledge of this fascinating kingdom by bringing each species to life in full felt-tip marker glory. SABRINA HC
(W/A/CA) Drnaso, Nick
When Sabrina disappears, an airman in the U.S. Air Force is drawn into a web of suppositions, wild theories, and outright lies. The follow-up to Nick Drnaso's LA Times Book Prize-winning Beverly, Sabrina depicts a modern world devoid of personal interaction and responsibility, where relationships are stripped of intimacy through glowing computer screens. An indictment of our modern state, Drnaso contemplates the dangers of a fake news climate. (STL079460)

BEVERLY GN
(W/A/CA) Drnaso, Nick
A darkly funny portrait of Middle America seen through the stunted minds of its children. The modern lost souls of Beverly struggle with sexual anxieties that are just barely repressed and social insecurities that undermine every word they speak. Time passes, bodies change sizes, realities blur with fantasies, truths disintegrate, childhood comforts turn uncomfortable. Again and again, the civilized façades of Nick Drnaso's pitch-perfect suburban landscapes crack in the face of violence and quiet brutality. Drnaso's debut graphic novel, Beverly, leaves you haunted and squirming and longing for more. (STK693168) (NOV151333)

CARPET SWEEPER TALES
(W/A/CA) Julie Doucet
Julie Doucet is an artist who has mastered many voices and styles, from her groundbreaking early comic-book series Dirty Plotte and the classic graphic novel My New York Diary, to her linocut and collage work, to her impeccable zines, prints, and other ephemera. In Carpet Sweeper Tales, we see this multi-faceted artist combine her many talents into one genre-defying masterwork. Here she revisits the comics form, pulling images from 1970s Italian fumetti, or photonovels, to create her own collage comics, dwelling on femininity and the modern world. (STK697925) (JAN161406)

THE CUSTOMER IS ALWAYS WRONG HC
(W/A/CA) Mimi Pond
The Customer is Always Wrong is the saga of a young naïve artist named Madge working in a restaurant of charming drunks, junkies, thieves, and creeps. Oakland in the late seventies is a cheap and quirky haven for eccentrics and Mimi Pond folds the tales of the fascinating sleaze-ball characters that surround young Madge into her workaday waitressing life. Told in the same brash yet earnest style as her previous memoir Over Easy, Pond's storytelling gifts have never been stronger than in this epic, comedic, standalone graphic novel. (STL052156)
HC, 6x8, 448pgs $29.95

HOT DOG TASTE TEST HC
(W/A/CA) Lisa Hanawalt
Hot Dog Taste Test serves up Lisa Hanawalt's devastatingly funny comics, saliva-stimulating art, and deliciously screwball lists as she skewers the pomposities of foodie subculture. From the James Beard Award-winning cartoonist and production designer/producer of Bojack Horseman, Hot Dog Taste Test dishes out five-star laughs as Hanawalt keenly muses on pop culture, relationships, and the animal in all of us. SPANIEL RAGE GN
(W/A/CA) Vanessa Davis
Vanessa Davis's autobiographical comics delighted readers ten years ago when she first began telling stories about her life in New York as a young single Jewish woman. Spaniel Rage is filled with frank and immediate pencil drawn accounts of dating woes, misunderstandings between her and her mother, and conversations with friends. Unabashedly, Davis offers up gently self-deprecating anecdotes about her anxieties and wry truths about the contradictions of life in the big city. These comics are sexy, funny, lonely, beautiful, spare, and very smart, the finest work from a natural storyteller. (STL032550)

SUSCEPTIBLE HC
(W/A/CA) Genevieve Castree
Geneviève Castrée has long been beloved for her mini-comics, comics, visual art, and music. There is a unique quality to all of her artistic endeavors — quiet, serene, depressing. Castrée's keen eye for detail and her fearless ability to probe the depths of her troubled past make Susceptible a stirring portrait of an artist coming into her own. Susceptible is the story of Goglu, a daydreamer growing up in Quebec in the '80s and '90s with a single mother. From a skillful artist comes a moving, beautiful story about families, loss, and growing up. (STK518743)

O/A BOUNDLESS GN
(W/A/CA) Jillian Tamaki
Jenny becomes obsessed with a strange "mirror Facebook," which presents an alternate, possibly better, version of herself. Helen finds her clothes growing baggy, her shoes looser, and as she shrinks away to nothingness, the world around her recedes as well. The animals of the city briefly open their minds to us, and we see the world as they do. A mysterious music file surfaces on the internet and forms the basis of a utopian society — or is it a cult? Boundless is at once fantastical and realist, playfully hinting at possible transcendence: from one's culture, one's relationship, oneself. This collection of short stories is a showcase for the masterful blend of emotion and humour of award-winning cartoonist Jillian Tamaki. (STL042462)

Meet Donald, who sings off-key; Francine, who likes to eat stones; and Marvin, the man with lots of stuff in his beard. THE ILLUSTRATED CALL OF CTHULHU HC

Written in 1928, H.P. Lovecraft's Call of Cthulhu defined the ancient gods as dark creatures who came from the stars and ruled the world before mankind. When these ancient ones awaken, humanity is plagued by a nightmare of terrors etched upon an epic backdrop. Artist Gary Gianni and designer Marcelo Anciano both felt that Lovecraft's short story presented an opportunity to visually expand the Cthulhu mythos and push the boundaries of illustrated books. This book is a fusion of the graphic novel, the illustrated book and cinematic design. Over a hundred drawings enhance and bring to life the work of two visionaries — Lovecraft and Gianni — in an extraordinary feat of storytelling and art. (STL078755) (C: 0-1-0)

BLOKE'S PROGRESS GN
(W) Kevin Jackson (A) Hunt Emerson
Darren Bloke is an ordinary, hard-working stiff until a lottery win changes — and ruins — his life. He squaners his windfall and loses everything except his beloved dog, Skittle. Then he is visited by the spirit of John Ruskin, the Victorian artist, philosopher, and thinker, who shows him the true meaning of Weath — not how to aquire is, but what is the right way for an honest mean to deal with it. This strange comic book is part satire, part economic and philosophical treatise, part love story, part political argument, part psychedelic craziness, and always funny. Kevin Jackson interprets Ruskin's complex ideas into an absorbing narrative, and Hunt Emerson's fast, easy style makes the whole thing move like a Popeye cartoon. (STL079325)

STAFF PICK

RETRO FAN MAGAZINE #1

Recommended by Steven Leaf

Nostalgia. It can be ancient history to some, to others it's remembering the best years of your life. For me it's George Papp's Superboy, Dick Sprang's Batman, Aurora model kits, Rat Fink, Officer Don and the Popeye Club, Lloyd Thaxton, Tony the Tiger Taylor, AM radio, and Saturday matinee.

Twomorrow Publications new magazine, Retro Fan Magazine, is pop culture nostalgia at its finest. This new publication covers what you remember about the 60s, 70s, and the 80s and hopefully teaches you something new as well.

This first issue cover features TV's Incredible Hulk, Lou Ferrigno, as well as Martin "Pesky" Pasko on The Phantom and his Hollywood treatment, Andy Mangel's look back at Filmation's Star Trek animated series, a look back at the Andy Griffith Show and a visit to Mayberry, and meeting Betty Lynn, Mayberry's own Thelma Lou. Add The Oddball World of Scott Shaw, this time featuring the goofy comic book Zody the Mod Rob, a look back at Mego's rare Elastic Hulk toy and many more articles and columns.

Retro Fan Magazine is a welcome addition to the list of titles from Twomorrow Publications and reminds us that's there is more than comic books when thinking about the good old days.

LION FORGE™

The Big Empty Life of Alphonse Tabouret

An existential fairy tale about life, love, loss, and the search for answers to questions we all ask nobody in particular.

Alphonse Tabouret was born on a stump in the woods and immediately had a million questions for his maker, who, frustrated by the questions, left him to figure things out for himself. So he sets off on a fantastical journey of self discovery, pondering life, loss, friendship, loneliness, and love with every creature he meets.

A whimsical fairy tale for all ages—visually appealing for young readers and early teens, but with philosophical layers that will appeal to adults as well.

Alien Toilet Monsters is the new series that finally answers that age-old question: "Are we alone in the universe?" The answer is both Yes, and... well, No. You see, it depends entirely on which universe you mean! Forbidden worlds, circular love triangles, and assuredly hard sci-fi, Alien Toilet Monsters is a densely packed mini-series aimed at Mature Readers; it's best quantified as a nihilistic satire that shamelessly probes the underside of humanity. VERONA

Recommended by Leigh Tyberg

Let's be honest. It's not exactly easy to relate to a story like Romeo and Juliet. Sure, boy meets girl, and boy and girl fall in love, but boy and girl's families hate each other so much they're killing each other, and then boy and girl get married, make bad decisions, girl cries a bunch and then they subsequently die for each other after a series of unlikely events.

It's not exactly the stuff that modern romance is made of, is it?

Enter Dell, Everett, and Helms' Verona, a graphic novel that takes the base plot of Romeo and Juliet, applies it to the shoot-em-up kill or be killed world of gun runners and drug dealers and injects our heroes with agency, along with some refreshing diversity. While Shakespeare never tells us why the Capulets and Montagues hate each other, Verona really gives them something to fight about, and in the process, gives the denizens of Verona something to truly fear. City officials, the authorities and civilians alike are continuously caught in the crossfire.

Verona is a fast-paced read, driven by gunfights, romance, explosions and intrigue that go beyond Shakespeare's "Two houses, both alike in dignity." The added backstory gives the characters a depth that allows for a story with a much wider scope, as well as a no-frills way of telling a notoriously frilly tale.

Cleverly, the book sneaks in some great Easter eggs for the well-versed Shakespeare nerd. Eagle-eyed readers will recognize tips of the hat to A Midsummer Night's Dream, Hamlet, and Macbeth.

West Side Story meets Die Hard in the thrilling tale of romance and revenge!

HELLBOY: INTO THE SILENT SEA STUDIO EDITION

Recommended by Jim Fallone

This has always my favorite Hellboy story. Mignola and Gianni place Hellboy firmly within a classic literature context that makes me wonder what Coleridge, Melville, and Shelly would have written had comics been an active medium back in their time. What would great illustrators have contributed had they been versed in the language of modern comics?

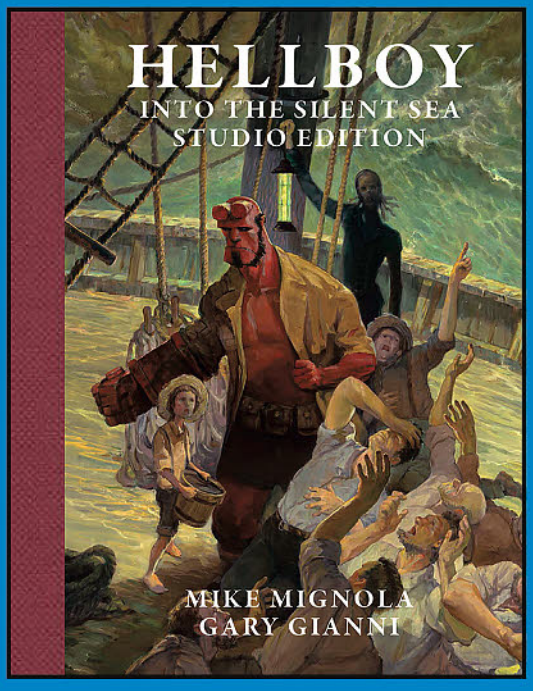

Gary Gianni is one of America's great illustrators. Those are not light words. There are many great comic artists, many great cover artists, artists that excel at the female form, artists that have a unique graphic style, but there are very few who can truly be called illustrator. Alex Raymond, Hal Foster, these men didn't draw comics they illustrated panels as if they were individual plates in a book.

With Hellboy: Into the Silent Sea Studio Edition we get to really see what than might have looked like. Gianni illustrates each panel as if they were Wyeth plates in a Scribner Classic. His style skillfully evokes the dread of Gustave Doré's Rime of the Ancient Mariner but also shows a heavy nod to Joseph Clement Coll, not just in his masterful cross hatching but in his use of negative space and off center framing. Each image mixes with and informs the narrative text. This is inspired work.

There are a lot of extras in this beautiful book for both the comic aficionado and Hellboy fan including commentary from Mike Mignola, scripts, reference photos, etc., but the star here is clearly Gianni's art and the power of black line on white paper.

HARBINGER WARS 2 #1

Recommended by Jim Kuhoric

Ahh the crossover event. That illustrious staple of comics that presents a foe so large it takes all our favorite heroes to come together or duke it out in order to save the day. Originally the idea was that the mega crossover would do something so huge and momentous, they'd leave an indelible mark on the entire line for months or years to come. Too many publishers ignore that part of the event (the ramifications) these days and focus on hype, but not Valiant. When these guys say something will shake the foundations of their shared-U, they mean it. That's why I am excited to see the fallout of Harbinger Wars 2 #1 in this month's PREVIEWS. HWII ushers the return of X-O to Earth and pits Bloodshot and Ninjak against Peter Stanchek and his band of Renegades in what they are promising to be the "most shocking, most violent, and most consequential clash of powers ever witnessed in the history of the Valiant Universe." That sounds like an epic showdown of the biggest and baddest players in the VU. I'm looking forward to reading a good old-fashioned punch you in the face event that leaves real scars across the characters. I'll be pre-ordering the 40-page bundle edition on this bad boy. Well played, Valiant... Well played.

LOU SCHEIMER: CREATING THE FILMATION GENERATION SC
(W) Andy Mangels (A) Lou Scheimer
Hailed as one of the fathers of Saturday morning television, Lou Scheimer was the co-founder of Filmation Studios, which for over 25 years provided animated excitement for TV and film. Always at the forefront, Scheimer's company created the first DC cartoons with Superman, Batman, and Aquaman and swung into high adventure with Tarzan, The Lone Ranger, and Zorro. Forays into live-action included Shazam! and The Secrets of Isis, plus groundbreaking special effects work on Jason of Star Command and others. And in the 1980s, Filmation single-handedly caused the syndication explosion with He-Man and the Masters of the Universe and its successors. Now, Lou Scheimer tells the entire story in this book illustrated with photos, model sheets, storyboards, presentation art, and more. (STK360985)

HARBINGER WARS 2 #1 (OF 4)

FEATURED ITEM

THE SEISMIC COMICS EVENT OF 2018 STARTS HERE!

From New York Times best-selling writer Matt Kindt (X-O MANOWAR. DIVINITY, Mind MGMT) and superstar artist Tomás Giorello (X-O MANOWAR), the most powerful Valiant event ever attempted erupts in full force as X-O Manowar, Livewire, the Harbinger Renegades, Bloodshot, the Secret Weapons, Ninjak, and a cast of thousands draw their battle lines in HARBINGER WARS 2!

For the rare and immensely powerful subset of humanity known as psiots, their unique abilities have come with an enormous cost. Once, their existence was known only to a select few. Now, the revelation that thousands of these latent telekinetic "harbingers" secretly live among us...with the potential to be activated at any moment...has led the American government to a dramatic tipping point...

Armed with new extra-governmental authority, the deep-black military contractor known as Omen has been authorized to identify, evaluate, and, if need be, eliminate all super-normal threats to the homeland. H.A.R.D. Corps units have been deployed into cities and towns across the United States to enforce their orders.

In the East, one of the most powerful minds on Earth, Peter Stanchek, is leading his band of Renegades across the country, activating any potential psiots willing to join them, and building an insurrection force of ultra-powerful and unwieldy new abilities that will soon bring war to Omen's doorstep...and the unstoppable force known as X-O Manowar raging back to Earth...

In the West, Livewire - the telekinetic technopath with the ability to bend machines and computers to her will - will be forced to choose between her former allies...or her newfound team of Secret Weapons. As the situation escalates beyond human control, the United States will be plunged into darkness from coast to coast, launching Bloodshot and Ninjak into a dangerous mission to neutralize their one-time teammate - and setting the stage for the most shocking, most violent, and most consequential clash of powers ever witnessed in the history of the Valiant Universe!

VALIANT HIGH #1 (of 4)

Valiant proudly presents its first ALL-AGES escapade with a pitch-perfect entry point for new fans and longtime readers alike!

Before they became legends, the world's most formidable heroes were roaming the halls at Valiant High – a super-powered preparatory academy where Aric "X-O Manowar" Dacia is a record-setting running back, Colin "Ninjak" King is a debonair foreign exchange student, and Coach Bloodshot is way, way too into dodgeball. Now, Amanda "Livewire" McKee and her best friend, Faith "Zephyr" Herbert, are taking it all in for the first time at the one high school where power trumps popularity!

From rising star Daniel Kibblesmith (The Late Show with Stephen Colbert) and Eisner Award-winning artist Derek Charm (Jughead), get ready for your first day of school inside a hilarious reimagining of Valiant's award-winning superhero universe – one where the next world-ending cataclysm will have to wait until after prom night! NINJAK #7

"THE COALITION" spells doom!

For decades, the mysterious figure known as the Jonin trained and tutored the agents of MI6's Ninja Programme. In his hands, the men and women of Britain's most elite secret service were refined into more than spies... They became human weapons capable of inflicting extraordinary damage and defying the laws of nature itself. Now, after decades thought dead, this master killer has resurfaced...and recruited a new circle of undying, seemingly ageless powerhouses from across the Valiant Universe for reasons unknown. The Jonin's revenge will cast a long shadow – and, to meet it head on, Ninjak has assembled his own squadron of heavy-hitting heroes – including Livewire, Dr. Mirage, Punk Mambo, and GIN-GR - for the ultimate black-ops mission!

SPOTLIGHT ON

THE ART OF WINNIE THE POOH HC
(W) James Campbell (A) E.H. Shepard
Winnie the Pooh and his friends from the Hundred Acre Wood are some of the world's most beloved characters in children's literature. Before they appeared in millions of books, they began life in the 1920s as the product of a unique collaboration between A. A. Milne and E. H. Shepard. Author and illustrator wove images and text together in a way that was utterly original for the time. It was a process that Shepard relished, creating artwork for new editions right up until his death in 1976 at the age of 96. In this beautifully designed, full-color volume, which includes a foreword from Shepard's granddaughter, readers will not only discover the story behind this remarkable partnership, but also follow the evolution of Shepard's work, from those first tentative and never-before-seen sketches to the illustrations we know and love. MARK RYDEN: THE ART OF WHIPPED CREAM HC
(A/CA) Mark Ryden
Blending themes of pop culture with techniques reminiscent of the old masters, Mark Ryden has created a singular style that blurs the traditional boundaries between high and low art. Ryden has trumped his initial surrealist strategies by choosing subject matter loaded with cultural connotation. Ryden's vocabulary ranges from cryptic to cute, treading a fine line between nostalgic cliché and disturbing archetype. A subtle disquiet inhabits his paintings; the work is achingly beautiful as it hints at darker psychic stuff beneath the surface of cultural kitsch. (STL078718) (C: 0-1-0)

I AM GANDHI: A GRAPHIC BIOGRAPHY
(W) Brad Meltzer (A) Various (CA) David Mick
Twenty-five exceptional comic book creators join forces to share the heroic story of Gandhi in this inspiring graphic novel biography. HOLLY GOLIGHTLY
FOUNDING MEMBER, VP & CREATOR AT BROADSWORD COMICS

P: What is your primary job title? In a quick phrase or two, could you define your job's key responsibility?

Holly: I'm a Founding member, VP and Creator, I do all the Production and most of the Retail/Wholesale responsibilities as well- oh and I do some Modeling too.

P: Could you please explain how your work helps make comics a reality?

Holly: Jim (Balent) does the pencils, inks, writes the stories, full cover art and then LOL, basically I do everything else needed — including the interior colors and lettering.

P: Every industry professional has something they absolutely love about comics. Whether it's a particular title or format or audience or tradition or something else, we're all hooked. What's special about comics for you? Would you be willing to share a treasured memory about it?

Holly: My obsession started because I had a crush on my best friend's boyfriend. He was a lawyer on the Watergate trial (the "good guy" side) reading in his study, and I was 14. I asked him what he was reading, he handed me a Conan, a Howard the Duck and a Red Sonja, and I was hooked!

EMILY MARTIN
ARTIST AT ACTION LAB COMICS

P: What is your primary job title? In a quick phrase or two, could you define your job's key responsibility?

Emily: I am the main artist and co-creator for the all-ages fantasy comic, Princeless. I draw interiors and covers for the main story, and I am the lead design artist for all the Princeless characters.

P: Could you please explain how your work helps make comics a reality?

Emily: I collaborate with the writer/creator of the comic to bring a shared vision of the story to life. I send in character designs and rough draft pages to my writer and editor, and once approved, I turn them into complete artwork by drawing the pages out on paper, scanning them into the computer, sharing the files with my inker, colorist and letterer to complete, and then sending them off to the publisher. I also look over the artwork of guest artists for approval.

P: How did you get started?

Emily: I started with self-publishing, and learned as I went. I tabled at several conventions, and networked with several folks in publishing, and eventually began working with a publisher on Princeless.

AMY CHU
FREELANCE WRITER AT DYNAMITE & LION FORGE

P: What is your primary job title? In a quick phrase or two, could you define your job's key responsibility?

Amy: Writer. I view my job as like a story architect. I create the scripts — the "blueprints" — that the penciler, inker, colorist and letterer work from; I essentially create the story structure and framework for the comic. I think many readers don't realize the writer is responsible for the page and panel breakdowns — basically which action happens where, as well as the dialogue and captions.

P: Talk to us about the heroic people in your comics life. Who do you admire? Who inspires you? Why?

Amy: Amongst the pros, it's the colorists and letterers! They get handed crazy deadlines and then proceed to save the book every month, and most readers don't even realize it.

JANET HARVEY
FREELANCE WRITER AT ONI PRESS

P: What is your primary job title? In a quick phrase or two, could you define your job's key responsibility?

Janet: I'm a writer. I've also worked as an editor, an audiobook producer (for DC Comics), and a game writer (for DC Universe Online). I guess you could say my primary job responsibility is bringing characters to life!

P: If you had one comics-related wish — no limits — what would it be?

Janet: I have lots of comics-related wishes, but speaking of "no limits" — what I'd really like is to not be considered ONLY for books with female leads. I mean, I'd love to write Punisher, or Judge Dredd, or the Hulk, or Martian Manhunter, or an X-Men book! Guys get tapped to write female characters all the time. And it's not that I don't love writing female characters... but that whole "a good writer can create a well-developed character regardless of their sex" thing works both ways, you know!

MOLLY KNOX OSTERAG
WRITER/ARTIST AT SCHOLASTIC/ GRAPHIX

P: What is your primary job title? In a quick phrase or two, could you define your job's key responsibility?

Molly: I'm the writer and artist of two middle-grade graphic novels with Scholastic/Graphix, and the artist behind the webcomic Strong Female Protagonist and a few other books.

P: While there are loads of professionals in the comics industry, there are only so many folks who get to do what you do! How did you get started?

Molly: I knew I want to be a storyteller, and that I liked drawing, so for college I went to the School of Visual Arts for cartooning and learned a lot about how to draw well and make readable comics. While there, I started the webcomic Strong Female Protagonist with my friend Brennan Lee Mulligan. Its deconstructive take on superheroes and social justice got us noticed by enough readers that by the time I graduated, I could run a successful Kickstarter to print the first book and I got my first published job drawing Shattered Warrior for First Second. Since then, I've been working hard to develop as an artist and a writer, and pursuing more projects where I'm the solo creator. I still make the webcomic and other web-based art, but graphic novels have my heart!

JAMIE LEE ROTANTE
ASSISTANT EDITOR AT ARCHIE COMIC PUBLICATIONS

P: What is your primary job title? In a quick phrase or two, could you define your job's key responsibility?

Jamie: I'm an Assistant Editor and Writer. I'm the writer of Betty and Veronica: Vixens and I work in Editorial at Archie handling script reviews, communicating with freelancers, managing production schedules, writing up the solicitation info and crafting any copy needed for the comics and proofreading.

P: Could you please explain how your work helps make comics a reality?

Jamie: For my day-to-day, I handle working directly with freelancers in regards to deadlines for script and art — basically all stages of production of a comic from inception to print. I read scripts when they're first submitted and review along with the editorial team, keep track of the progress of the pencils, inks, colors and letters. I also proofread the comics before they go to print.

P: What comic titles have you worked on?

Jamie: I write Betty & Veronica: Vixens. I also serve as co-Editor on Jughead: the Hunger and The Archies, and I'm an Assistant Editor on Archie, Cosmo and The Mighty Crusaders.

KARYA TAN
LEGAL AND PRODUCTION ASSISTANT AT LION FORGE

P: What is your primary job title? In a quick phrase or two, could you define your job's key responsibility?

Karya: As a Legal Assistant, I make sure that the contracts are sent to the talents and licensors so we can start creating our comics. Without the "Work Made for Hire" agreements, the writers, pencillers, inkers, colorists, and letterers would not be able to start working on our comic books. And as a Production Assistant, I find printers, send our comics to print, and make sure they arrive to the distributor in time for their direct market release dates.

P: What's the part of your job you enjoy the most?

Karya: I absolutely enjoy working with creative individuals — whether they're my co-workers or the talents who help make our comic books possible!

MANAGING EDITOR AT VIZ MEDIA

P: What is your primary job title? In a quick phrase or two, could you define your job's key responsibility?

Hope: I oversee the editorial department, which is responsible for the localization (translation & lettering) of manga from Japanese to English.

P: Could you please explain how your work helps make comics a reality?

Hope: I start the process off on the acquisitions side by identifying potential series to be licensed from Japan and evaluating them on their merit and sales potential. I then work with other departments like Sales and Finance to approve the acquisition internally, then with the Licensing department to acquire the title. My roles also include supervising the editors and their work, creating the publishing release schedule, proofing every book we release, and editing a few of my own series.

P: What's the part of your job you enjoy the most?

Hope: I enjoy the rush of identifying a series that you know is a good fit for the company to acquire and will do well. Additionally, I still like proofing!

Ashley: I create materials such as title logos and ads for our comic books. I also help to organize materials and build the books using programs like Adobe InDesign.

P: Could you please explain how your work helps make comics a reality?

Ashley: While some work takes place in the beginning of production, such as title logo creation, I work mostly in the final stages of production. After the artists, colorists, and letterers finish their work, I take over to put the interiors and covers together into one file. Working with the editors, I make whatever adjustments are needed to finalize the book and ready it for print.

P: What's the part of your job you enjoy the most?

Ashley: Getting to see all the artwork that comes in! It's really inspiring seeing the amazing work our artists create. I also draw, so a lot of the artwork that comes across my desk inspires my own artwork.

Basically, we do it all and have a family as well!

P: What's the part of your job you enjoy the most?

Kelly: The most rewarding part of my job would have to be someone coming back to pick up the next in a series that I have recommended to them, stating that they enjoyed the series! I love getting new customers — especially women and kids — into reading. The industry really does have something for everyone! My customers have become my family of sorts!

Creator signings are probably my favorite part of my job. While they are a ton of work prepping for weeks ahead of the event, when the day comes, everything just works out perfect!

VERONA

Recommended by Leigh

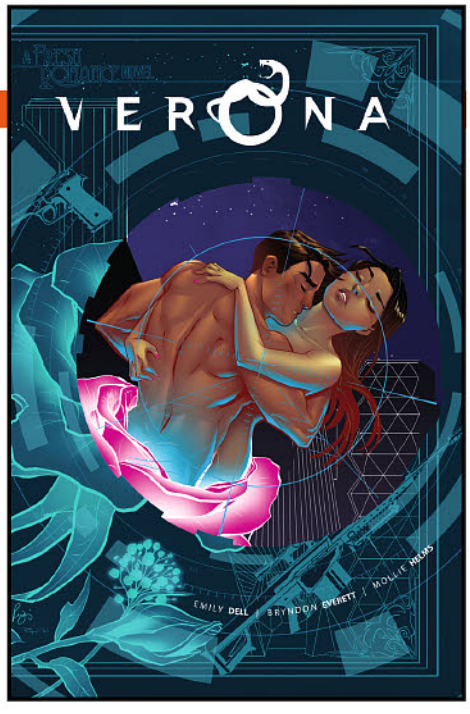

Let's be honest. It's not exactly easy to relate to a story like Romeo and Juliet. Sure, boy meets girl, and boy and girl fall in love, but boy and girl's families hate each other so much they're killing each other, and then boy and girl get married, make bad decisions, girl cries a bunch and then they subsequently die for each other after a series of unlikely events.

It's not exactly the stuff that modern romance is made of, is it?

Enter Dell, Everett, and Helms' Verona, a graphic novel that takes the base plot of Romeo and Juliet, applies it to the shoot-em-up kill or be killed world of gun runners and drug dealers and injects our heroes with agency, along with some refreshing diversity. While Shakespeare never tells us why the Capulets and Montagues hate each other, Verona really gives them something to fight about, and in the process, gives the denizens of Verona something to truly fear. City officials, the authorities and civilians alike are continuously caught in the crossfire.

Verona is a fast-paced read, driven by gunfights, romance, explosions and intrigue that go beyond Shakespeare's "Two houses, both alike in dignity." The added backstory gives the characters a depth that allows for a story with a much wider scope, as well as a no-frills way of telling a notoriously frilly tale.

Cleverly, the book sneaks in some great Easter eggs for the well-versed Shakespeare nerd. Eagle-eyed readers will recognize tips of the hat to A Midsummer Night's Dream, Hamlet, and Macbeth.

West Side Story* meets Die Hard in the thrilling tale of romance and revenge!

RETRO FAN MAGAZINE #1

Recommended by Steven

Nostalgia. It can be ancient history to some, to others it's remembering the best years of your life. For me it's George Papp's Superboy, Dick Sprang's Batman, Aurora model kits, Rat Fink, Officer Don and the Popeye Club, Lloyd Thaxton, Tony the Tiger Taylor, AM radio, and Saturday matinee.

Twomorrow Publications new magazine, Retro Fan Magazine, is pop culture nostalgia at its finest. This new publication covers what you remember about the 60s, 70s, and the 80s and hopefully teaches you something new as well.

This first issue cover features TV's Incredible Hulk, Lou Ferrigno, as well as Martin "Pesky" Pasko on The Phantom and his Hollywood treatment, Andy Mangel's look back at Filmation's Star Trek animated series, a look back at the Andy Griffith Show and a visit to Mayberry, and meeting Betty Lynn, Mayberry's own Thelma Lou. Add The Oddball World of Scott Shaw, this time featuring the goofy comic book Zody the Mod Rob, a look back at Mego's rare Elastic Hulk toy and many more articles and columns.

Retro Fan Magazine is a welcome addition to the list of titles from Twomorrow Publications and reminds us that's there is more than comic books when thinking about the good old days.

MALIKA - WARRIOR QUEEN PART TWO

Recommended by Megan

The YouNeek Youniverse is expanding with the release of Malika -Warrior Queen Part 2 this May! Set in fifteenth-century West Africa, Malika - Warrior Queen follows the exploits of queen and military commander Malika, who struggles to keep the peace in her ever-expanding empire.

In the second volume of the graphic novel series, Malika uncovers that not all of her supposed allies feel she is capable to control the Azzazian Empire, leading to a painful betrayal by one of the people closest to her. The treachery unnerves a usually stoic and composed Malika, allowing her enemies both known and unknown, internal as well as external, to encircle her, positioning themselves for the destruction of Azzaz, the empire she spent her entire adult life building. Can Malika recompose herself and save her people once again? Or is this betrayal the beginning of the end for Malika and the people of Azzaz? Only time will tell.

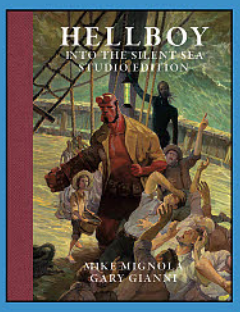

Nigerian native and author Roye Okpue brings his love, respect, and rich knowledge of African history and legends in this intrepid follow up to 2017's Malika Warrior Queen (MAY172065). Featuring stunning artwork designed once again by Chima Kalu and Raphael Kazeem, Malika Warrior Queen Part Two is a 144-page symphony for the eyes. This next chapter in the YouNeek Youniverse if the perfect book to pick up for returning fans and new readers alike.

All hail the Warrior Queen!

HELLBOY: INTO THE SILENT SEA STUDIO EDITION

Recommended by Jim

This has always my favorite Hellboy story. Mignola and Gianni place Hellboy firmly within a classic literature context that makes me wonder what Coleridge, Melville, and Shelly would have written had comics been an active medium back in their time. What would great illustrators have contributed had they been versed in the language of modern comics?

Gary Gianni is one of America's great illustrators. Those are not light words. There are many great comic artists, many great cover artists, artists that excel at the female form, artists that have a unique graphic style, but there are very few who can truly be called illustrator. Alex Raymond, Hal Foster, these men didn't draw comics they illustrated panels as if they were individual plates in a book.

With Hellboy: Into the Silent Sea Studio Edition we get to really see what than might have looked like. Gianni illustrates each panel as if they were Wyeth plates in a Scribner Classic. His style skillfully evokes the dread of Gustave Doré's Rime of the Ancient Mariner but also shows a heavy nod to Joseph Clement Coll, not just in his masterful cross hatching but in his use of negative space and off center framing. Each image mixes with and informs the narrative text. This is inspired work.

There are a lot of extras in this beautiful book for both the comic aficionado and Hellboy fan including commentary from Mike Mignola, scripts, reference photos, etc., but the star here is clearly Gianni's art and the power of black line on white paper.
